

Biography

Otis initially trained in Music at the BRIT School for Performing Arts and Technology, later transferring to the dance strand to study for A Levels and a BTEC National Diploma. During this time he also trained as a Ballet Black associate, going onto the Northern School of Contemporary Dance and completing his dance studies at the Central School of Ballet.

Upon graduation Otis-Cameron performed with the Red Tape Dance Company as part of the Malta arts Festival 2008. Other professional engagements include ACE Dance and Music Autumn Tour of SKIN, Turandot at the Royal Opera House, where his passion for music was reignited and Rambert Dance Company from 2009-2013.

He is currently performing in Matthew Bourne's multi award winning Swan Lake.